

Laura Giadorou Koch

Laura Giadorou Koch, JD and LLM
IGNITE POWER, SDG Officer

For Young Presidents Organization (YPO) she is Chair for the Social Impact Networks Council.

She serves as Ashoka Senior Advisor and gives talks on Social Entrepreneurship and “Using business as a force for good” at NYU, Columbia University, Fordham U, Kiva U, Ashoka U, Lancaster U and high schools in NY, CT and DC. Also Council member of with the Harvard Global Education Innovation Initiative (GEII) and the UN Media Initiative.

Laura serves as Senior Editor for e-AboutMicrofinance, and has published reports and articles for the United Nations, Huffington Post, Wall Street Journal and Argentine newspapers.

Prior to the above, she practiced corporate law in Wall Street for practically more than a decade specializing in cross-border transactions for Latin American and European clients. Laura has a law degree form the University of Buenos Aires, a Master in Law from the University of Illinois, Champaign Urbana and several management certificates from NYU, Harvard Business School and Frankfurt University.