

Mark W. Grobmyer is an attorney with substantial investment banking and international law experience. He is Chairman of the Global Solutions Institute which matches global problems with technology and other solutions and then seeks to accelerate the deployment of the solutions at scale globally. He also serves on a Blue Ribbon Climate Panel related to the UN Foundation and as Managing Director of the P80 Group Foundation. He has also served as Chairman of the World Leaders Symposium Committee. The Committee was developed as a part of the Center for the Study of the Presidency and Congress Millennium Project, which he chaired. He has also served as a lecturer and speaker for many programs and seminars presented in the several countries. Mark also serves as Chairman of the Global Technology Deployment Initiative and as has been for many years a Senior Advisor to SEAF, the NASA Launch Initiative, the International Center for Sustainable Development, the American Society of Association Executives, the International Sister Cities Conference, the Congressional Award Foundation and Chief Executive Magazine, the "Club Journal" of Fortune 1000 CEOs.